Hi, Alanna.

Cong. Blumenauer's office prefers either Tuesday time, but could make Monday work. The voicemail machines for the other 3 offices had no opinions, so I'll let you know when I get human responses.

Also, this is the announcement that was sent to the public and businesses. I will call you in a bit.

US EPA Holds Public Information Sessions for Portland Harbor Draft Feasibility Study
The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is reviewing the draft Feasibility Study for the Portland Harbor Superfund Site. You can review it too at the Multnomah County Central Library, 801 SW 10th Ave., or on the EPA website at www.epa.gov/region10/portlandharbor.
Under the direction of EPA, a group of potentially responsible parties known as the Lower Willamette Group (LWG) prepared the feasibility study. The study compares options to clean up Portland Harbor. These options will help manage contaminated soil and river sediment.

EPA will hold four public information sessions to provide an overview of the draft feasibility study. These sessions will include:

- Information about cleanup alternatives

- Site background information
- Discussion of effect on the community
- Next steps for making clean up decisions
- Opportunities for public involvement

In addition, open houses are scheduled before each session. During these open houses, you can speak with representatives from EPA, Oregon Department of Environmental Quality, LWG, Tribal governments, Natural Resource Trustees and the Portland Harbor Community Advisory Group.

Hi, Alanna.

10:00 a.m. today, or earlier, is fine with me. The only new thing I've learned is that Dennis will be in Portland on April 18 and is free after 1:00 p.m. that day.

Hi Cindy,

I was out most of today. I just sent an invite for tomorrow at 10am to discuss next steps. To my knowledge, no actions have been initiated for briefing the delegation.

Talk with you then,
Alanna Conley

Hi, Chip and Alanna.

Since I didn't reach either of you by phone, I'm following up with this email. I understand that you wanted a meeting or conference call for the congressional offices because the Portland Harbor FS is being released and community meetings are starting on April 11.

Both the Senate and the House are having district work periods from today through April 13, so the Members of Congress are likely to be in Oregon. If they are not available, the staff contacts that I would think of would be these:

Sen. Merkley--Maribeth Healey
Sen. Wyden--Mary Gautreaux
Cong. Blumenauer--Meeky Blizzard
Cong. Bonamici--Abby Tibbs

Please let me know what you may have already done on this and what remains that I could do.
